Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—How many days' leave are available to each sorter?

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—I have no definite information here. I want notice.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was this matter referred to the Special Finance Committee?

President.—That appears to be a new question.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was enquiry made regarding this, before giving this answer, whether it would be a profitable one or not?

President.—Whatever enquiry was necessary was made.

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—The Comptroller of Accounts submitted proposals for introducing Savings Banks in treasuries. So no enquiry was made.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Part (xi). I want to know what they mean by the word "local"— whether it is Cochin State or India.

President.—We had not meant outside Cochin. You want to manufacture these in the State. Not outside Cochin.

Pupils of the depressed classes in the various Sirkar schools.

280. Mr. I. E. Ambooken.—Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table statistics showing the number of pupils of the depressed classes that are now studying in the different departments of schools conducted by Sirkar and private agencies?

Mr. C. Matthai.—The following are the figures at the end of 1101:—

	Upper Secondary.	Lower Secondary.	Primary.	Industrial Schools.
Pulayas ..	19	2,943		6
Others ..	6	1,065		..

281. Mr. I. E. Ambooken.—Will the Government be pleased to state the exact number of Pulaya pupils now studying in the different departments of schools in the State?

Mr. C. Matthai.—Vide answer to question No. 280.

282. Mr. I. E. Ambooken.—Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a list of Sirkar as well as aided schools in which there are not a single pupil of the depressed classes?

Mr. C. Matthai.—Vide lists (A) and (B) appended. (Vide Appendix II.)

The several communities and Government appointments.

283. Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Will the Government be pleased to mention.—
